

THE WILDERNESS EXPERIENCE AUGUST 17-26 2010

The seminar is conducted in the Sawtooth Mountains and on the Middle Fork of the Salmon River in Idaho -five days mountaineering and four days white water rafting.

Terry Tillman Says...

- Located in the largest designated Wilderness area in the lower 48 states
- I don't know of any other wilderness experience that is doing both mountaineering and class IV white water rafting on the same trip.
- On the Middle Fork we go through a canyon deeper than the Grand Canyon.
- If necessary we can provide all gear except for personal items.
- The Sawtooth Mountains are beautiful (called "Little Switzerland" by some).
- The Middle Fork of the Salmon River is the premier white water river in the country- part of the longest undammed river system in the country.
- There is also time for quiet, peaceful contemplation, meditation or just plain rest

Take a break for your SELF

On this adventure you will learn about river navigation, paddle rafting, river history, mountain skill development, ropes skills, technical mountaineering, camp craft, solo challenges and more. And mostly, you will learn about you. You'll return with a higher sense of self, greater self esteem, greater clarity and an experience of truly profound joy!
